Local Couple Married on Exposition Stage With All Solemnity Due Occasion

Solemnity marked the wedding of Miss Ruby Kuhns, 17 years old, of Ponca City and Dwight J. Bottrell, 23 years old of 607 South Second street Saturday night at 9 o'clock on the stage at the Automotive and Merchants Exposition. The marriage service was performed by Rev. C. N. Hewitt, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, in the presence of hundreds of spectators that filled every space around the stage and far back into the exposition tents.

As the Hammon tree orchestra played the wedding march, the young couple, the bride attractively dressed for the occasion, walked to meet Rev. Hewitt in the center of the stage. Greenery and potted plants made an appropriate background for the wedding service.

Many Gifts Received

The wedding, featured as one of the important events of the exposition, afforded Mr. and Mrs. Bottrell an opportunity of helping with the civic enterprise by willingly consenting to have their marriage service, which would have been later, held before the public. The young couple were the recipients of numerous gifts, every exhibitor at the exposition contributing to the gift list of the couple. The wedding ring, license, minister and bridal bouquet were furnished by the management and perhaps the best feature was the bank account given the bride and groom to start them successfully on their matrimonial journey of life.

Mr. Bottrell does special steel structural work on the high pressure department at the Marland Refining company. He has made his home in Ponca City since 1909. He is a member of the Moose lodge, and belongs to the King's Business class of the Presbyterian church. The bride has been employed at the Marland Refining company and always resided in Ponca City. Mr. and Mrs. Bottrell will make their home in the Nonamaker addition.
