

Miss Barbara Turner Weds Albert Cottle

Twin baskets of pink carnations on pedestal holders and tapers in candelabra tied with pink bows decorated the chancel of the First Baptist church for the wedding of Miss Barbara Jean Turner and Albert L. Cottle.

The bride's brother, Jim Turner, and Jim Snyder lit the candles for the 7 p.m. double ring vows read by Rev. Dan Rainbolt.

Mrs. Merle Angle, the organist, presented a selection of wedding music for the ceremony and accompanied the soloist, Miss Tana Clement, as she sang, "O Promise Me" and "Because."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murl O. Turner, 406 South K, and was presented in marriage by her father. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Omer Cottle, 812 West Dewey.

For her wedding, the bride wore a gown of white bridal satin of her own design and made for her by the bridesmatron, Mrs. Emily Williams. The fitted bodice was styled with a V-neckline and joined the satin skirt, softly gathered around a paneled front. The sleeves were adorned with embroidered white roses and embroidered white roses encircled the hem forming a bouquet at the front. A deep satin pleat enhanced the back of the skirt. Her graceful veil fell below the shoulders and was held in place with three white rosebuds placed together with white ribbon and lace.

The bride carried a bouquet of pink carnations with ribbon streamers and wore a diamond heart-shaped necklace, a gift of the groom.

Her attendants were Miss Susan Fitzgerald, maid of honor, and Mrs. Williams, the bridesmatron.

They were attired in floor-length gowns of pale pink having fitted bodices and high necklines. Lace detailed the long sleeves. They wore matching pink bows holding shoulder length pink veils and carried single longstemmed white roses tied with pink bows.

The bride's brother, Henry L. Turner of Oak Orchard, Del., served the groom as best man and Don Brown was groomsman.

Miss Leanna Kay Turner of Billings, the bride's niece, also wearing pink, was flowergirl and carried a basket of assorted pink flowers.

A cousin of the bride, Douglas McCurry carried the rings.

Jim Turner and Jim Snyder seated the guests. Miss Marilyn Rowe kept the guest book.

At the home of the bride's parents, setting for the reception, a flower-covered archway was a canopy over the serving table. Pink rosebuds and a bride and groom decorated the tiered wedding cake. Assisting were Miss Carol Purdy and Miss Virginia Herren, cousins of the bride, and Mrs. Benny Turner of Billings, her sister-in-law.

For travel on a wedding trip, the bride chose a pink dress touched with gold and accented with her corsage of carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Cottle now reside at 207½ East College. He is employed in the pottery at the Blackwell Zinc plant.

Blackwell Times Review
Blackwell, Oklahoma

Submitted By:
Vicki Ebert